Dear Andrew;

The applications for the Guggenheim fellowship had to be in by Nov. 1st, and since I didn't have your permission I didn't use your name.

Just how much of politics enter into these awards I don't know, but if you are aware of any secret buttons to be pushed, any devious wires to be pulled, any private manipulation on your part would be vastly appreciated.

To get a fellowship would be important, for I am in a really distressing situation — to a point that I am likely at any day to be put out of my hotel with paintings, paraphernalia and baggage seized.

If you are able to put me in the way of selling a picture or somehow making some money, it would be a godsend.

My best to Ken Adams if you see him; also to Jack Beckett.

Sincerely,
Eugene MacLennan
