

HOTEL PONTCHARTRAIN
DETROIT, MICH.

Easter Sunday.

My dearest dream girl Bess.

Well dearest I received your special reply letter early this morning and you don't know dearest how happy I am to know and to know you love me as much as you do and I feel confident I could go out and conquer the world, for your love to me is the greatest incentive dearest and I am always going to try to act so as to always make you love for me and I know dearest that my love for you grows stronger everyday and I can hardly wait until this Fall to show you, but I guess I will have to wait nevertheless, but I know way down in my heart that you and I will be happy in our married life.

Well dearest I note what you say of the letter being written on a typewriter and that it should be written on Friendly Tinted paper, but I don't mind what kind of paper you write on dearest and just so it is a letter from the dearest girl in the world. and after this Fall you will have more time to write to me dearest and then you can use good stationery.

Well dearest I went to church at 10.30 this morning and I didn't get out until 1.30 and as I went up to take communion you can see I have put in a great deal of time in church this morning, but I enjoyed the service very much and I thought of you all the time dearest and wished you were sitting with me, and I know that next Easter you will be with me no matter when I am dearest.

This is an awful day for Easter and it is very gloomy outside and has been raining this morning and looks like rain now so it will make all the new Easter Hats and dresses stay inside.

Well dearest I wish to thank you for the very beautiful card you sent me and which I received last night on my arrival and the sentiment and words are very dear to me especially because coming from my darling dream girl. I do hope you had a lovely Easter and hope that the weather was more pretty than it is here.

Well dearest I am just like you and I thank God in my prayers that I can have you and I only hope and pray now that I can always make you happy and I will at least try it dearest.

Yes I received the Easter Cards from the folks at home and I was very glad to hear from them.

I note what you say dearest of going to St Pauls Friday night and that you met so many people there that you knew and I am mighty glad of that and dearest I am hoping and praying that you will someday take as much interest in the Episcopal Church as you have taken in your church and that will make me very happy dearest.
Oh I just love you so much dearest and I only wish I could be home with you to-day and could take you in my arms and love you and kiss you as much as you wanted and as I wanted and I believe your shoulders would ache dearest.

I note what you say about Clara bringing you a present from Mamma and that you were so well pleased with it and I did not know anything about it dearest, but I suppose whatever it was, it was all right.

Well I think a pink dress will be very pretty on you dearest and I know I will like it all right.

I suppose the children had a great time hunting the Easter eggs to-day and I surely would loved to have seen them to-day.

Yes dearest you will have a chance to be with me here in Detroit and then we can take in the sights to-gether and have a great time to-gether and I would give most anything if you were here with me this afternoon.

Well I hope you enjoyed the services at St Pauls to-day and I guess the singing was very beautiful.

I am glad you are happy to-day dearest and that you are thinking of me and I know I am happy and I am thinking of you all the time.

I thank you very much dearest for your words of best wishes for success and you can't realize what a comfort that is to me and I know with these words of comfort and good cheer I will be able to do a lot of business and I am going to work hard this week to make up for that which I lost last week and I know I will succeed for I always do have a good trade here in Detroit and I will get it ~~next~~^{this} week all right.

Yes I guess it is just like the old saying a poor beginning makes a good ending.

Well dearest I must close now as I am going out to Mr. Burn home for supper. Will just say I love you more than ever dearest and I send you all my love and kisses to the dearest girl in the world. I am Yours Harvester
Fred.
